Businesses burned over garbage

Seventeen members of Elk Point's business community packed the Town of Elk Point's new Council Chambers Monday night, to protest the Town's decision to sign a non-residential garbage contract with Laidlaw Waste Systems.

Karen Reed and Wayne Smith were spokespersons for the group, and tossed a number of searching questions at Council in the course of their one and a half hour visit.

Mrs. Reed said that while the business owners realized the Town was open for a new contract they "didn't realize it was coming to such a quick decision." She also asked why no advertisement for tenders had been made.

Mayor Ed Buck explained that invitations to tender had been made, first to local resident Ed Poulin, who held the contracts for both residential and non-residential garbage collection from July 1984 to last December 31, and then to Majestic Disposals Ltd of Lloydminster and to Laidlaw Waste Systems both of whom had previously indicated an interest in providing the service.

Poulin's increased price quotation in July 1985, over the previous year, caused the Town to decide on only a 6-month contract at that time. Another hefty increase was included in his October proposal for an 1986 contract, which also included a suggestion that the users be billed for garbage collection.

The Town then asked Majestic and Laidlaw for prices, with Majestic deciding at that point that they were no longer interested. Laidlaw presented a price of $3.29 per residence per month, and a $28 monthly bin rental plus between $7 and $11 per pickup for non-residential users.

Poulin was asked if he could compete with these rates, and subsequently gave a price of $3.40 per residence, indicating he would not be interested in the non-residential portion at that price.

"And now," Buck commented, "The local businessman whom we have been trying to protect, is selling out to his competitor." This referred to a recent communication received by the Town from Poulin, regarding his plans to sell his equipment to Laidlaw.

Mrs. Reed said that the business persons were happy with the $5 per month residential billing, but Buck said that Elk Point's senior citizens are not. Formerly, when paid through taxation, their tax incentives would have covered the bill, whereas now they will be required to pay monthly, along with the other 73% of the town's householders.

Buck noted that some homeowners will definitely benefit by the new scheme, including those with high assessments and those owning vacant lots, who previously paid for garbage through the assessment scheme.

Costs of using the dumpsite by Laidlaw, Poulin and businesses hauling their own garbage were discussed, as was the "preposterous" and "pricey" rental on the non-residential bins. Wayne Smith, who calculated he had previously paid 49¢ per pickup under the 1985 contract, said he thought the cost of the new system was "quite a jump".

Another concern expressed by the delegation was a number of flaws in Laidlaw's contract with the businesses. Mrs. Reed mentioned a clause which eliminated

Farmers ask for help

By David Menzies
St. Paul Journal Staff Writer

More than 400 vocal farmers packed the recreation centre Monday evening to pass an Alberta Cow-Calf Association resolution calling for provincial government assistance for farm operators.

The association's plan calls for the province to pay $50 per cultivated acre per farm operator to a maximum 1,500 acres, as well having the province guarantee all agricultural loans at a fixed rate of interest not exceeding six per cent.

The measures are intended to offset the losses suffered by the agriculture industry during the past few years.

Harvey Aarbo, vice-president of the Alberta Cow-Calf Association, told the crowd that the $50 payment per acre across the board was the fairest system, as it "not only gives money to the man in debt, but gives money to the man who didn't get into trouble."

"This way, the guy that doesn't have problems will buy a truck or more fertilizer (and) add to the spin-off factor," he said.

St. Paul Pee wees win Westmin Cup

St. Paul Pee wees took home the Westmin Cup on Sunday, after a 10-3 win over Vermilion in the "A" side final of the 8-team, Second Annual Westmin Pee wee Tournament.

Gordon McCuaig and Byron Mann of Westmin Resources were on hand to present the cup, along with trophies for the players, and gold medallions for players, coaches Conrad Jean, and Real Michaud and trainer Gordon Draves. The Bonnyville team received silver medallions.

On the "B" side, Wainwright defeated the Elk Point Co-Op Pee wees by a decisive 8-3 score.

Players on both "B" side final teams also received medallions. Teams from Two Hills, Meadow Lake, Bonnyville, and Marwayne also took part in the three-day tourney.

Garbage issue

Laidlaw's obligation to pick up the garbage, if prevented from doing so by "act of God, weather... or equipment failure". Another clause causing alarm was one which indicated that the contract would still be binding on a business becoming insolvent, bankrupt or ceasing operation, for the remainder of the three-year contract.

On this clause, it was suggested that another clause be added which declares the contract null and void if the business ceases operation.

Recommendations from the group included putting the garbage contract back to tender, discontinuing the bin system for the present time or asking Laidlaw for one-time drop-off charge instead of rental, and that further consideration be given to a hand-pick system operated by Laidlaw.

Council later decided to delay final approval of both residential and non-residential contracts until the Finance Committee meets with Laidlaw for further discussion and review.

Farmers ask for help

Aarbo also argued that low interest rates are crucial for the future well-being of farmers and pressed the need for a long-term agriculture policy.

Aarbo estimated the cost of the $50 per acre program would cost the province $1 billion, but hastened to add that farmers just "want some of their own money back."

"Last year, farmers paid $2.8 billion in taxes—don't let anyone tell you we're asking for taxpayers' dollars," he said.

And he added that the 1,500-acre limit was established so as the association would have a "credible" figure to present to Premier Don Getty, who Aarbo said is now listening to the concerns of farmers.

"Our assessment of Mr. Getty is that he is listening to the grassroots of this province," he said, noting the Alberta Cow-Calf Association will be meeting with the premier to discuss the group's findings on Mar. 4.

"He has shown us he's committed to agriculture."

After the meeting, Aarbo told the Journal he's hopeful the new farm assistance programs will be in place before the next election.

But he expressed disappointment over the noticeable absence of Agriculture Minister Leroy Fjordbotten.

"I don't know why he (Fjordbotten) can't be out in the country to hear the grassroots," Aar-bo said. "Mr. Fjordbotten has never been to this area, and I think a change in ministers would definitely be for the better."

Aarbo added the resolutions are not meant as the first step in give and take negotiations.

"We see the $50 per acre as a minimum and the six per cent interest rates as a maximum," he said.

MLA John Drobot told the farmers he is hopeful new assistance programs will be put into action as "the first priority of the provincial government is to strengthen agriculture."

"We are looking at new marketing strategies to stabilize farm income," he said.

New dog bylaw coming

Ridding Elk Point of its stray dog population is a high priority with Elk Point Town council, who noted this problem was once again growing.

Several methods of dealing with the captured strays were discussed, although no one ventured to decide who would do the capturing. The matter was sent to committee for further review, after which a new bylaw will be drafted.

Cats, who are protected under English Common Law, will continue to have their freedom.

RCMP recommendations for traffic control in Elk Point, which include a parking ban on Highway 41 from 50th Avenue to Railway Avenue, and a 4-way stop sign at the 50th Avenue and 50th Street intersection.

The traffic congestion at the intersection may be the result of vehicles parking too near the corner, Council felt, and sent the matter to the Public Works Superintendent for input.

The proposed parking ban will be sent to Elk Point Chamber of Commerce for their input.

Representatives from the Elk Point Gas Company visited Council to answer questions on a proposed new agreement with the Town. The present agreement runs for three more years, but is in serious need of revamping, Gas Company spokesman Bert Pratch said, adding that the Public Utilities Board had suggested a new agreement. A proposed rebate and rumored sale of the company were also discussed, with the rumor firmly quashed.

Water Supply Line progress payment invoices were approved by Council, with extra items on the invoices explained by administrator Pat Vincent.

Cicon Engineering will be asked to provide cost information on damming Atimoswe Creek for a new raw water intake.

Finances pertaining to the Airport Commission were discussed. The Town voted to make a commitment to pay half of the operating and capital deficit, if the County of St. Paul will make an equal commitment. A similar cost sharing plan was approved by Council for drilling a water well at the airport, if the County agrees.

The Public Works committee is to assess the cost incurred by Town trucks hauling water to the airport.

Town Council decided against approval of development of an auto wreckage yard adjacent to Town boundaries, due to the proximity of the parcel to the Town's water source and the Town-owned recreation land.

Clandonald News

By Shirley Osinchuk
Clandonald Correspondent

On Friday, Jan. 17, the students from Grades 5 to 9, and several parents enjoyed a day of skiing at Kinsoo Ridge. The weather was good and the hills were fast. Now we are hearing, "When can we go skiing again?"

The Mary Osinchuk rink won the Clandonald Ladies' Bonspiel the week-end of Jan. 9th. Liz Zayak, Elsie Quickstad and Marie Zayak backed up Mary. Second place in the first event was won by Cary Hancock's rink from Dewberry.

It has been suggested that if you are not pleased with the change in time of the "Obituary Column" on CFCW, you write to the radio station to express your concern.

Ronald Seal, who grew up on a farm northeast of Clandonald and then lived and worked at Lindbergh, passed away in Elk Point Hospital. Our sympathy goes to his family and friends.

Landonville Community Association is holding a Whist Drive on Wed., Jan. 29, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Bring your cards and some lunch.

Mark this on your calendar! Wednesday, Feb. 5, from 1 to 4 p.m., a Life Saver Course, "First Aid For Busy People". Everyone is urged to attend (no admission charge). Instructor Cole Pederson, from the Farm Safety Branch, Department of Agriculture, Edmonton, will teach what to do for choking, how to save a limb, artificial respiration and other first aid techniques. This is co-sponsored by the Clandonald Agricultural Society.

Bible Club starts again at the Bible Fellowship Church, right after school on Thursday, Feb. 6. All children from Kindergarten to Grade 6 are invited. Meetings end at 5 p.m. and transportation home is provided.

Regular Meetings for February: Agricultural Society - Mon., Feb. 3; Knights of Columbus - Wed., Feb. 5; C.W.L. - Tues., Feb. 11; Fish and Game - Thurs., Feb. 20; Family Night. Bible Fellowship Church - Sun., Feb. 23.

Bantams raise funds for trip

Elk Point Bantam Elks kicked off a fundraising project last week, aimed at paying the team's way to a 60-team multi-national hockey tournament in Port Coquitlam, B.C., during Easter break.

A very successful bottle drive gave the team a $500 start to their nest egg. This week, a door-to-door peanut sale on Thursday evening and a dance at F.G. Miller High School on Friday night are planned.

Coach Stan Bates said that raising a total of approximately $12,000 is now the "main concern" of the team. They have less than two months to raise $4,000 for transportation and approximately $8,000 for board and room for a week's stay by 22 people before the March 28 departure date. Bates said the boys are "willing to work" toward paying their own way, although some financial aid may be sought from the Elks Lodge and local businesses.

Along with the hockey — "at least four games" — and tours of the B.C. mainland and hopefully the Expo '86 site, the boys are looking forward to meeting the players on teams from eastern Canada, the USA and Europe.

"It's a once in a lifetime opportunity," Bates said, adding that the team members share his enthusiasm for the trip.

The Bantams are hosting an 8-team tournament on February 8 and 9, with teams coming from Edmonton, Tofield, Wainwright, Lloydminster, St. Paul, Waskatenau and Mallaig to take part.

Unsung heroes

There are many services we take for granted in our day-to-day lives, which actually deserve recognition for the unassuming way in which they are provided for our welfare.

It was very comforting, driving home along from council meeting in five inches of new fallen snow, to meet the local RCMP on patrol. The sight of the familiar blue and white vehicle chugging doggedly through the snow was reassuring — it was good to know that someone else found the road passable, and that these guardians of our safety were out there checking to see that no travellers were stranded by the storm.

first thing visible through a veil of snowflakes was the winking yellow lights of a snowplow, making its arduous way along the drifted highway. Several more trips by the plow were evident by the time most of us had to leave for work, and one on its final swath went by just in time to be followed up the hill and right into town.

In spite of the six inch overnight snowfall, the highway was totally plowed by shortly after 8 a.m., which means that the plow drivers must have been roused from slumber very early indeed, to give the rest of us a fighting chance to travel safely and without incident.

As morning dawned, the Hats off to the care-takers!

We tried!

Our sincere apologies to Mr. & Mrs. Martin Aarbo, whose Golden Wedding Anniversary was inadvertently left out of the year-end summary of news, and also to the three young heroes from the Lindbergh area who were honored for their lifesaving efforts, which also went unmentioned.

The function of the year-end summary is actually just to give a brief overview of the year's activities, and not to recount every happening of the past year. However, it seemed to get away on us and grow of its own accord, to mammoth proportions.

To all those who became impatient with the long-winded "serial story", we also apologize — next year we will do better, and get it all in one issue — we hope!

THE CRAFTS OF CROCHETING, KNITTING AND WEAVING — Are used by those who have these skills to creative lovely and useful articles — as well as to win ribbons in the Fair. I. Magnusson

Putting our hands to good work

By Irene Magnusson

Is it fair to prepare for the Fair fairly early? I say — Yes, it is! Some of you are already well on your way to a good display of your crafts and hobbies. You've had all that practice making Christmas gifts — and surely remember to whom you gave that lovely sweater or crocheted tablecloth — so you can borrow it back to enter in the fall Fair.

We've been blessed with a mild mid-winter, but it is certainly not daisy-picking weather, therefore an excellent time to practice needlework skills. The knitting, crocheting and weaving section, in the Elk Point and District Ag Society Fair, is under the able direction of Ellen Seward this year, and she may be contacted at 724-2345. Seward takes over from Sharon Kuhn. She is well qualified to convene this section, having participated in Fair activities for years.

Articles in this section include sweaters, mitts, socks, baby items, Christmas decorations, doilies, slippers and many more. Broomstick and Cro-knitting are included. This is the section where you enter those lovely afghans. Weaving, in several mediums, novelties and a Junior section are included, and new this year, knitted doll clothes. Something for everyone, truly, and your results will include good, practical items, which you can use and cherish for many years. Do get started soon.

Photography is the other winter pastime that can result in a good deal of satisfaction, and lots of material for entry in the summer Fair. What can be more effective, especially in the black-and-white sections, than our beautiful frosty winter? We haven't had the weeks of frost-laden branches that some winters produce, but there are still many scenes just waiting for the click of your camera.

Children at play make a good subject, outside or in. And the long evenings might be put to good use to set up elegant still-life or special effects photography. What better time to take a few portraits of friends and loved ones?

All the usual sections will be featured in the 35mm and Instamatic areas, with the addition of a Humorous section in each. The entire Poloroid section has been deleted, as there were few, if any, entries for the last couple of years. Lillian Demchuk is the Photography convenor and she may be reached for further information at 724-2430.

Last year's display of 'most unusual' photos brought out several very interesting prints, showing artistic talent and ingenuity. Go for it. You may be the winner. But even if you aren't in the red ribbon category, it's lots of fun and a great stimulator of your creativity. There are places for photos in the Junior class, too, so get your kids in action.

Don't forget that photos must not be framed or covered (with glass, I presume) for judging, they should be mounted on light cardboard, and none may be larger than 12" x 16"; this year your portrait must be enlarged, but the exact size is left to the exhibitor.

The new Prize List booklet is almost ready and you will see it out soon. Watch for it.

Recreation Corner

By Linda Simpson
Recreation Director

Community groups often ask how they can get more volunteers active in their group. In trying to answer that question, we have to go back to the start and find out why people volunteer in the first place. This article written by Joyce E. Dickens and submitted by Laverne Wilson tends to identify some reasons why a person might volunteer.

THE CHALLENGE OF BEING A VOLUNTEER

1. To help people
 - because of duty, conscience, personal philosophy
 - because no one else will do the job
 - because they want to feel useful or have good deeds in the bank.
2. To gain new contacts
 - as friends, to be part of a team, to create a social circle.
3. To use, gain or enhance skills
 - to gain new skills, share old ones, maintain professional competence.
 - to become more creative in the area of their expertise
4. To further their careers
 - to earn the right to a reference (especially for young people)
 - to add to their resume
 - to get work experience
5. To look after their own interests
 - self interested participation in volunteering in their own hobby areas, eg. skiing, stop signs on their street, the involvement of their children

— to maintain their vested interest in an activity

6. To productively use their leisure time

— freedom to choose what they do — security from a life with purpose

— to meet the achievement and accomplishment needs

— to have a life with some value and self worth in it

7. To achieve recognition

— to have influence for what they do

— to gain status

— to have control of a situation plus many, many other reasons.

Road accident injures three

Dewberry News Roundup

Two injury producing accidents last week are still under investigation by Elk Point RCMP.

Slippery road conditions were present at 7 a.m. on Monday, January 20, when two pickup trucks collided at an intersection on Secondary Highway 640 one mile east of Highway 41.

The drivers of both vehicles were taken to hospital, one to Myrnam and one to Elk Point, who was later transferred to Edmonton. Both are reported to be in satisfactory condition.

The second accident occurred that evening at the junction of Highways 41 and 28. A man was discovered in an overturned pickup truck which had apparently failed to turn either north or south when he approached the corner from the west.

The driver, and Edmonton resident, suffered a fractured femur, a punctured lung and hypothermia from remaining in his vehicle for some time before he was discovered. He was taken to hospital in Elk Point and later transferred to Edmonton.

Out our way

By Mildred Dunham

Ferguson Flats Correspondent

Primrose was fairly quiet this week except for the game warden checking on the fishermen this weekend. The corner near the Primrose graveyard got sanded again as it appears to be a good place to see off road vehicles. Stella Stone and I went out Greenlawn way Saturday and I met several people I haven't seen for a few years.

Out Lindbergh way, the Brown family are once again proud grandparents of a baby boy, Devon Morris born to Dale & Annette of Derwent on Jan. 23rd at Elk Point Hospital. The Brown family also went to Edmonton to visit a grandson in hospital who has had an operation. We wish the little fellow a complete and speedy recovery.

Vina Hostvedt is back home after spending a week with her daughters in Edmonton.

By Cliff Cunningham

Dewberry Correspondent

The Dewberry Ladies Birthday Club held their party at the home of Lillian Poiras on January 14th, with a good turnout.

John and Melie Maltais have flown to Ontario to visit their son, daughter-in-law and family and will not be back until January 28th.

Dewberry is sponsoring a Dance for Loyal and Sylvia Krawchuk at the Dewberry Hall February 1st. Loyal was a Elevator agent for Cargill Grain for a good many years in Dewberry and got married after he retired and moved to Vegreville.

Kevin Cunningham of Mannville and his bride are honey-mooning in Hawaii. Bruce and Ida Cunningham, Faye and Joe Good from Vermilion went with them.

The Dewberry School Reunion Meeting is February 4th at 8:00 p.m. in the Dewberry School. All interested parties please attend.

George Wowk is the new vice-president of the Clandonald Fish and Game Association.

A lot of our fishermen have been spending some of their spare time fishing this winter as this has been the warmest January that I can remember. The fall work and summerfallow are mostly all bare. Up to January 19th, we had only two days that were below zero degree F and it has been as high as 40° F above.

Don't forget the annual meeting and potluck supper at the Senior Citizens Drop-In Centre January 29th.

Hockey and curling are going strong as we have artificial ice in the arena and curling rink. Recent hockey scores were: Jan. 13th: (Tom Thumbs) Lloydminster 7 - Dewberry 0; Jan. 14th: Dewberry Mustangs 12 - Hillmond 4; Jan. 17th, (All Star game): Dewberry 3 - All Stars 3 (Harley Prouse one goal and Dennis McCormack 2 goals.); Jan. 18th: (Flyweights) Hillmond 1 - Dewberry 11; Jan. 18th, Mites: Dewberry 5 - Bonnyville 3; Jan. 19th: Kehewin 22 - Frog Lake 18.

The Marwayne Pee Wees attended Turtleford Pee Wee Tournament over the week-end, coming home A winners. They won over Turtleford (4-3) Wilke (30-0) Spiritwood (6-0) and Maidstone (6-0). Top scorers were: Donnie Miller and Leon Nohnychuk. Six boys from Dewberry and District play with Marwayne Pee Wees. These include David Haney, Mike Rainey, Allan Parr, Jason Elliott, Troy Dobranski and Mike McCormack.

Marge Cunningham was taken to Islay by ambulance this morning.

Happy Birthday to all that have a birthday in January.

An invitation to Expo 86

By Irene Magnusson

A presentation to the Elk Point Seniors following their Wednesday Bingo session was made at the hall by Bob Smith of Nagel Coaches Tours, of Calgary.

He came well equipped with a slide projector to show the many fascinating faces of the giant Show, which will continue in Vancouver from May 2nd to October 13, 1986. Already fully booked for the months of May, June and July, he could only offer accommodations for bookings in August, September and October.

Nagel Tours offers several packages, with trips of 7, 9 or 11 days, all of which include a look at the Big Show, plus a few days in other parts of B.C.

Expo 86, sponsored by the Canadian Government and hosted by B.C., will indeed be a spectacular show. Fifteen million visitors are expected, and this number may be exceeded. Countless attractions are offered, from the magnificent Geodesic Dome, to the beautiful white 'sails' of Canada Place, to the sweeping roller-coaster with 17 upside-down loops to thrill you out of your wits, to the treasures of King Tut on display — millions in solid gold! — to the handy electric trains which will run all day to take you for free wherever you wish to go on the spacious grounds along False Creek, all have been laid out to please and entertain.

We here from Elk Point will be able to wander among the numerous pavilions, all of which will be somewhere on the theme of "Transportation", and pick out our own Alberta Pavilion, distinctively of the prairies, with its grain-elevator skylines, and revolving glass tower and know that it was created by one of 'our boys,' from Elk Point, none other than Gary Andrishak, son of Fred and Velma Andrishak. Gary is the 'Partner' in the Sturgess Partnership company, Architects and Urban Designers, of Calgary. Even today, he is out there busily over-seeing the construction, making sure all is in readiness for the sea of visitors which will wash over the Expo site starting in May.

I, for one, am going. It could be fun to go on a tour, but then I am blessed with a goodly number of relatives living very close to the Expo scene, and I think they will have a space saved for me. And I'm certainly looking forward to seeing Gary's creation, and all the rest. Those 'tall ships,' the sailing vessels should be worth the trip alone.

There are brochures on the tours at the Pioneer Circle hall, which you can possibly pick up, if you are interested.

See you at Expo 86!

GOING VISITING — Edmonton Oldtimers "star player" leaps the boards to visit with some delighted young fans in the stands.

Edmonton Oldtimers take on T-Birds

Snow on the roof doesn't mean there's no fire in the furnace, and this old adage was proven once again when the Molson Edmonton Oldtimers came to town for a contest with the Frog Lake T-Birds.

Well-known hockey names of days gone by decorated the sweaters of the grey haired group, who showed they can still skate and shoot with the best of them. Their 18-9 victory over Frog Lake was cheerfully accepted by their opponents, and the atmosphere of the entire game was one of good natured camaraderie.

Only two penalties, one a slapshot rendered by a mismatched player on the Oldtimers, were assessed during the entire game, making this the best-behaved game of the season, and not a single fight marred the evening of good family entertainment.

Adding to the entertainment were two unusual members of the Oldtimers squad, one dressed in striped T-shirt, raggy longjohns and baseball cap, and sporting a 7-foot hockey stick, and the other a grandmotherly type who made the team's nineteenth goal with a puck firmly attached to her hockey stick!

The game proved profitable to the Frog Lake Community Association in more than the admission fees. At the beginning of the third period, affable, Del Keown of the Oldtimers presented the Frog Lake Recreation Association with a $200 cheque for the Frog Lake Minor Hockey.

The nine Frog Lake goals were scored by Gordon Quinney (2), Dwayne Moyah (2), George Solawaychuk, Kenneth Stanley, Derek Quinney, Gary Abraham and Corey Abraham. Assists were by Randy Moyah, Norman Quinney, Corey Abraham, Burton Quinney, Claudie Cross and Dwayne Moyah.

Bantam hockey

By Shirley Osinchuk
Clanadonald Correspondent

On Sunday, Jan. 26, the Bantams played St. Paul in Elk Point, with St. Paul winning 4-1. It was a fast game, really enjoyable to watch.

The next game on the schedule is at home in Elk Point, with Marwayne, at 3 p.m. on Sunday, Feb. 2. Due to tournaments and Provincial games the schedule is sometimes changed, so watch for notices around town or phone one of the players to check on game times.

The boys thank everyone who donated bottles and helped with the bottle drive. They made over $500 toward their trip to the Port Coquitlam Tournament.

A dance on Friday, Jan. 31, at the F.G. Miller High School is their next fund-raising project.

Meet the players

David Anderson, #4, plays Defense. He is 15 and in Grade 10 in Elk Point. David lives east of Elk Point. He has played hockey here since he started in Tom Thumbs.

Bryce Lorensen, #77, plays Left Wing. He is 15 and in Grade 10 in Elk Point. Bryce lives east of Lindbergh and has played hockey in Elk Point since he was in Tom Thumbs.

Jayson Bates, #11, plays Centre or Defense. Jayson is 15 and in Grade 9 in Elk Point. He lives north of town. Jayson began playing hockey in St. Paul when he was in Tom Thumbs. This is his sixth year playing in Elk Point.

Midget hockey

On Friday, Jan. 24, the Midgets hosted the Lloydminster Midget Flames for their first Provincial game of the season. It was a close, fast game with the final score 8-6 for Elk Point. This is the first game in a two-game total-point series. The second game will be played in Lloydminster.

The next game on the schedule is with Wainwright in Elk Point at 6 p.m. on Sat. Feb. 1. As mentioned in the Bantam report, the schedules are changed quite often now to fit in tournaments and Provincial games, so check the posters around town or phone a player to check on game times.

Meet the players

Kelly Godziuk, #1, is the goalie. Rodney Stepaniuk, #6, plays Centre. He is just back in action after breaking his collar bone earlier in the season.

These three players and Joe Rath are all "imported" from Myrnam. They started playing there when they were in Mites. This is their first year playing in Elk Point. All four are 15 years old and in Grade 10 in Myrnam.

Interest grows in Rural Crime Watch

Over fifty rural residents attended a Rural Crime Watch information meeting in the Stoney Lake Hall last week.

St. Lina and District Rural Crime Watch President Dan Kachmarchyk and Secretary/Treasurer Ina Green were on hand to outline the procedures of starting a Crime Watch group, while RCMP officer Jim Woolford explained what Rural Crime Watch and Range Patrol can do to protect the community.

MLA John Drobot, District Agriculturalist Terry Holmgren, Brand Inspector Don Garriock and Fish and Wildlife Officer Wayne Brown were also in attendance.

Woolford told the audience that the purpose of Rural Crime Watch and the accompanying Range Patrol, CB Patrol and Ride Along programs is to decrease the theft of livestock, grain and other farm property, the illegal use of firearms, and vandalism. The RCMP helps with keeping a file of missing and found livestock reports, and also provides forms for identification of horses and cattle, and loans equipment for marking property.

Rural Crime Watch applicants are screened through the RCMP computer "to make sure people are not using this avenue for the wrong reasons," Woolford said. He added that the RCMP also alert Crime Watch members to look for suspicious or stolen vehicles which might be in the area.

Wayne Brown explained the Fish and Wildlife Department's involvement in the Rural Crime Watch program, which peaks during hunting season.

Considerable interest in the program was shown by those in attendance, and it was tentatively decided to form a Rural Crime Watch local in the area.

Although it started out in the St. Lina area, and continues to be called the St. Lina and District Rural Crime Watch, it now covers much of the County of St. Paul and has fourteen directors from various areas in the northern half of the County. Kachmarchyk said that the name may undergo a change in the near future, to reflect the involvement by a wider area.

Further information meetings are planned for the Lafond and Lac Bellevue areas in the near future.

Bored of Education

All this and we can act too

Do you enjoy our page each month? If so, wait until you see what we can do on a stage!! On February 6 at 7:00 p.m., we will adorn the stage in F.G. Miller School to entertain you. Together with the Lakeland Drama Club, we have an evening of comedy planned for you. We will be performing HAM-let, with apologies to William Shakespeare. The Lakeland Theatre Co. will tickle your funny bone with a skit entitled Spy vs. Spy and another play entitled Cinder Rillie. So come on out and enjoy yourselves. Admission is $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for children and senior citizens. Refreshments will be sold at intermission. We hope to see you all there.

"Bored of Education" is written and organized by the Grade 9 Language Arts Option Class, as a class project. We would like to extend our warm thank-you to the Lakeland Review, this month's sponsor, and as well we would like to thank Elks Club, last month's sponsor.

Back to school

I fell out of bed and scratched my head,
Spilt the shampoo on the floor.
I burnt my toast and stubbed my toe on the cupboard door.
Then I sneezed and my make-up ran,
I thought I was going to die.
I had to laugh, cause I knew school had started again!!!

I tripped and fell in a mud puddle
And soaked myself to the skin,
Missed the bus, and got there late,
To find I had forgot my pen.
The teacher screamed and threw her chalk,
And all we wanted to do was talk!!!
WHAT A DITHER WHAT A FIX
WHAT A WAY TO START 86!!!

New secretary for FGM

Donna Gulayec, our new secretary, has been a resident of Elk Point for nineteen years, and has worked for the County of St. Paul for the past eight years. Before starting at the High School in December of 1985, she worked as a kindergarten teacher's aide at the Elementary School, here in Elk Point. She enjoyed her job there but felt it was time for a change. Donna and her husband Gary, the shipping supervisor at the Windsor Salt Plant, have two daughters, Carmen and Jacqueline. Carmen is presently in Grade 12 and Jacqueline is in Grade 9. Both girls attend F.G.

Miller School. In her spare time, Donna enjoys oil painting and doing petit point. Donna also likes to participate in sports such as basketball, baseball and volleyball. She hopes that working in the school will give her an opportunity to play these sports more often. Look out students, the staff team will definitely have an edge with Donna on the team. The students and staff of F.G. Miller wish Donna the best of luck in her new position. We hope you spend at least another eight years in the system, this time with us!

ON THEIR GUARD — The Glen Avon Panthers make a valiant try to keep Elk Point's Angel Ference away from the basket during their visit to Elk Point last week. Basketball season is well underway, with plenty of action.

Annual Ukrainian Dinner

Upon the arrival of the new year, the Ukrainian students and the staff of F.G. Miller with special guests Mr. and Mrs. Modin, celebrated Ukrainian Christmas. By holding their eight annual dinner on January seventh. The meal consisted of the traditional twelve dishes, that were prepared and donated by the students in the Ukrainian classes. The last minute preparations were done by the grade nine Ukrainian students under the supervision of Miss. Romaniuk. The meal was enjoyed by all and everyone is looking forward to the 1987 dinner.

The riddle

Who am I?
Am I deeper than the deepest ocean?
Higher than the highest cloud?
Proudest of the prospering?
Most humble of the sky?
Please,
Tell me, who am I?
Am I friendship,
Trust and pleasantness all in one?
Laughing, joking, always carefree.
Fluttering in the wings
Ready to comfort
Never leaving friendship
For second place
But always at the top!
Who am I?
Does no one know for sure?
Help me,
Help me find myself.

European Vacation

Miss. Foley and seventeen students from grades ten, eleven, and twelve, of the F.G. Miller Senior High School will be departing for Europe on March 27, 1986, and returning April seventh, 1986. While in Europe they will be visiting London, Paris, and Amsterdam. Miss Foley and her group are certainly the envy of the school. Have a safe trip!

Miss Crystal Fleck joined the grade 8 class of F.G. Miller School on January 7, 1986. Although she came to us from Edmonton where she attended Eastwood School, Crystal was originally born in Vancouver. She has one brother in Grade 3 and she is going to have a new brother or sister sometime in March. In her spare time Crystal enjoys watching T.V., or going skating. She says her favorite T.V. show is "The Twilight Zone" and her favorite movie is "Secret Admirer". On behalf of all of the students and staff of F.G. Miller, we would like to welcome you and your family to Elk Point. We hope you soon feel comfortable here and make many new friends.

Basketball starts again

The Junior High basketball season has started again after a much appreciated Christmas break. Practices are run on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The junior boys were defeated in their first game against Glen Avon on January 16. St. Paul held a tournament on January 18. Our boys played Vermilion and won by a score of 66 to 8. They weren't quite as lucky in their second game as they lost to Racette. They play two more home games: one against Racette on February 6 and the other against Ashmont on the 13th of February. The basketball team wishes to see you all there to cheer them to victory.

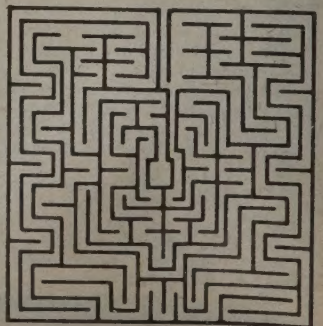

Girls Basketball

The F.G. Miller girls basketball team participated in tournament in St. Paul on January 18, 1986. Altogether, there were eight girls teams. The Elk Point girls lost their first game to Glendon with a close score of 20-22. They won their second game against Lac La Biche with a score of 19-4. Unfortunately, the girls lost their game for the finals against Glen Avon. The score was 10-9. They will participate in a tournament in Bonnyville on February 1. Better luck then, girls!

Greg Van Maaron is another of the numerous new students walking the halls of F.G. Miller School. Thirteen year old Greg is in Grade 7 and came to us from Crossfield, Alberta. He moved here with his family of five because his father was transferred in with Amoco. When he finds himself with spare time on his hands, Greg likes to play hockey in the winter, ride his motor bike in the summer and build models any time of the year. We are certainly glad the Van Maarions were transferred to Elk Point because Greg and his sister Stacey are a welcome addition to our student body.

This is another labyrinth. It was used in Egypt as a jail. Can you solve this maze?
